

'24 S.A.R.P. Student Bursary and Scholarship Program

The Saskatchewan Association of Recreation Professionals is committed to supporting students on their journey to become Recreation Professionals. This Bursary Package has one application form for four separate bursary/scholarships:

Roy Ellis Bursary ($1,000)

Anne Robins Scholarship ($1,000)

S.A.R.P. Board of Directors Scholarship ($1,000)

(NEW) S.A.R.P. Development Scholarship ($500)

Eligible Students

- Student Member of S.A.R.P.
- Have not already received a bursary or scholarship from S.A.R.P.
- Enrolled in a minimum of three classes, at an eligible post-secondary institution
 - ◉ Eligible Institutions are as follows:
 - University of Saskatchewan Kinesiology
 - University of Regina Kinesiology
 - Saskatchewan Polytechnic Recreation and Tourism Management
 - Saskatchewan Polytechnic Therapeutic Recreation
 - Saskatchewan Polytechnic Sport Management

Selection Criteria

Primary factors considered in selection for all opportunities include academic performance, letters of support from faculty/employers and application submission strength. The goal for S.A.R.P. is to award all funds each year and reserve the right to adjust the criteria accordingly to ensure the funds are dispensed to qualified candidates each year.

Additional factors in selection for specific bursaries and scholarships are as follows:

1. Roy Ellis Bursary

- ◉ In their second year or more of studies

2. Anne Robins Scholarship

- ◉ Must be a Therapeutic Recreation Student
- ◉ Of Indigenous ancestry
- ◉ In their second year or more of studies

3. S.A.R.P. Board of Directors Scholarship

- ◉ In their second year or more of studies

4. S.A.R.P. Development Scholarship

- ◉ In their first year of studies

How to Apply

Log in to your S.A.R.P. Member Account. Click on "Scholarship Application" and fill out the online form.

Note: Students must have copies of their transcripts, resumé, photo, and support letters ready to upload prior to filling out the form. Online applications cannot be saved.

Incomplete applications will not be eligible.

Deadline for submission is April 15, 2024. All applicants will be notified by April 30, 2024.

If you have any questions please contact the provincial office at 306-693-7277 or email office@sarponline.ca.